Wednesday, October 30th

Considered the longest running Halloween attraction in the country, it has now greatly expanded to three times its original size. It was created in 1966 by 13-year-old Cortlandt Hull as a tribute to the actors and makeup artists that gave us the classic movie monsters. The wax museum style tour features highly accurate life-size re-created figures of Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, Lon Chaney, Vincent Price and others, each in an elaborate scene or diorama based on the classic Hollywood chillers! You are guided through the 20 min. tour by other-worldly costumed hosts, giving you insights to the films, makeup artists and the actors, as well as special voice recordings by Vincent Price, John Agar, Mark Hamill and June Foray. After the tour, you are welcome to stay and enjoy vintage movie thrillers shown in original film format. Also featured before the tour are displays of rare original movie props and makeup appliances by Oscar & Emmy winning makeup artists John Chambers, Dick Smith and others.
